WASHINGTON SOCIETY IS MOVING OCEANWARD

Beveridge Marriage* On Aug. 7

The wedding day of Senator Bever idge of Indiana and Miss Katherine Eddy, of Chicago, has been variously announced as August 1, August 15, and today a third announcement comes from Chicago that the day is set for August and that the ceremony will be performed in the American embassy at Berlin, where the brother of the brideelect, Spencer Eddy, is the first secre tary. Both bride and bridegroom-elecare in Paris, or have been, recently and they are the only ones remaining silent upon this most important sub silent upon this most important subject. Just what their plans are they have not given out, but doubtiess they are all made and arranged for.

Miss Eddy has been abroad with her mother for several months, and the Senator joined them in Paris last month. The engagement was known to their most intimate friends in Washington before the departure of Miss Eddy with her mother, and her aunt, Mrs. Marshall Field. Miss Eddy's first season in Washington was a brilliant success, for she was greatly admired and courted by both young and old men. Senator Eeveridge is not only one of the prominent Senators, but one of the youngest on the floor.

nent Senators, but one of the youngest on the floor.

His prominence in the literary field is equal, if not greater, so that the match may well be termed a brilliant one. Miss Eddy has not an enormous fortune, but it is a comfortable one, Her father is Augustus N. Eddy and they occupied one of the fashionable apartments at 1155 Sixteenth street during the past suason, and expect to be there again next winter.
